Dear Mrs. Manley:

We shipped to you on April 3 two gross of Baseballs and hope you have received them by this time. They were shipped to you by express.

The reason we did not write you before this about your uniforms is due to the fact that we were not sure of the delivery date. In fact, as matters now stand we are still not sure because the factory has held us up on delivery of the flannel. Our own factory has the caps, belts, and hose made and it will not take them long to make the shirt and pant just as soon as they do receive the flannel. Just as soon as anything in the way of a definite shipping date is received, I will advise you.

I am very sorry this uncertainty exists but every manufacturer of uniforms is experiencing the same difficulty at this time. I want you to know that your order is receiving every consideration and will be shipped at the earliest possible moment.

Cordially yours,

WILSON SPTG. GDS. CO.
